

Life before death: Destiny

Ecclesiastes 8:10 - 9:10

Wisdom deals with the burdens that we must face.

Ecclesiastes 8:1

Life is confusing.

Ecclesiastes 8:10-17; Romans 11:33-36;

Death is real.

Ecclesiastes 9:1-6

Today is God's gift to you.

Ecclesiastes 9:7-10; Mathew 26:39; Hebrews 12:2-3

Our knowledge is a receding mirage in an expanding desert of ignorance.

– Will Durant, The History of Western Civilization

Considerations for the week

Dilemmas. We think that life should follow the rules as we understand them. It doesn't always do that. Describe ways in which we respond to these difficulties.

Reversals. The teachings of Ecclesiastes acknowledge that moral reversals happen, such as the righteous suffering and the wicked prospering. Why is it important for us to accept this?

In God's hands. Read Solomon's words in Ecclesiastes 9:1 and Paul's in Romans 11:33-36. Explore the possibility that a person can ensure good will come to them by being righteous or wise.

Wisdom. Read all of Ecclesiastes 8, focusing the first and last verses. Consider the benefits of wisdom and its limitations. What does it look like to pursue wisdom while accepting your limits?

All-in. What are you doing halfway? Decide today go all-in. Share your decision with someone and permit them to check on your progress.

Please use these considerations for personal reflection, small group discussions, and with friends and family.

Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God has already approved
what you do.
– Ecclesiastes 9:7, ESV
