

In whom will you invest?

John 10:22-42

Jesus is different than even our greatest judge.

Rejecting Christ

Jesus' guarantees

Jesus Christ has called us to invest all of ourselves in Him, and He promises a guaranteed return on our lives.

Considerations for the week

Consider factors that influence whether someone trusts another's words. Discuss times when this was an issue in history or in personal life.

It often happens that people see the same evidence and come to different conclusions about what it means. How does this happen?

Jesus responds that He has already told them (v. 25-29), but they do not believe. Why might someone refuse to believe, despite strong evidence?

This passage indicates that the identifying marks of Jesus' sheep are: hearing, following, belonging. Which comes first?

Jesus speaks of skeptics asking for more proof. Recall times when you may have liked to have had more.

Jesus speaks of sheep listening to their Shepherd. Recall times when you listened.

Jesus speaks of believers growing in faith. Recall a time of spiritual growth.

Please use these considerations for personal reflection, small group discussions, and with friends and family.

"I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand. I and the Father are one."

— John 10:11, NIV
