

An Alarming Love

The Book of Joel

Sin is destructive.

Joel 1:1-5; Joel 2:1-5, 11; Proverbs 3:11-12

God wants you to return to Him.

Joel 2:12-13; Romans 5:8-9

God wants to restore your hope in Him.

Joel 2:18-27; Joel 2:13; Joel 2:28-29, 32; Acts 2:16-21; Ephesians 1:13-14

Becoming more like Jesus

Joel 3:1-2, 12-16; 2 Peter 3:1-2, 8-10, 13-14, 18

Considerations for the week

Disciplined. Explore how discipline can be an act of love. How does God discipline us?

Kindness. Further explore God's discipline. How might it be a kindness? Read Romans 2:4.

Restored, v. 2:25. Restoration does not make everything from the past just go away. God restored the years eaten by the locusts. What does that restoration mean, since we cannot actually get the time back?

The Spirit, v. 2:38, 32. Joel delivers the prophecy and promise of the pouring out of God's Spirit upon all who call on him. Consider how this can encourage us and help us endure difficult times.

On all flesh. Why is the Spirit poured out on "all flesh" — sons, daughters, old, young, servants? In Joel's time, why would this prophecy have been considered radical?

Repent. What does real repentance look like? False repentance?

What is the difference between repentance and restoration? Contemplate how restoration comes to us and what our role is in it, if any.

What does it mean to live as someone who trusts that God will set all things right?

Please use these considerations for personal reflection, small group discussions, and with friends and family.

Even now," declares the Lord, "return to me with all your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning." Rend your heart and not your garments. Return to the Lord your God for he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love . . .
