

God's Passionate Love for You

The Book of Hosea

A story of God's heartbreak and love
Hosea 1:2-3

Gomer's children and God's judgement
Hosea 1:4-11; Hosea 2:1-13

The disaster that Israel brought on herself
Hosea 3:1

God's love and God's promise apply to us.
Romans 4:16; Galatians 3:7, 29; Romans 9:23-26; Hosea 2:15-20

Considerations for the week

What is a covenant? Compare the nature of current-day covenants with God's covenant as portrayed in Hosea 1.

Examine parallels between Israel's unfaithfulness and patterns in the modern church.

Explore how Hosea 3 redefines love, covenant, and forgiveness.

How does the God's promise in Hosea 1:10–11 interrupt His judgment? Delve into what this reveals about God's character.

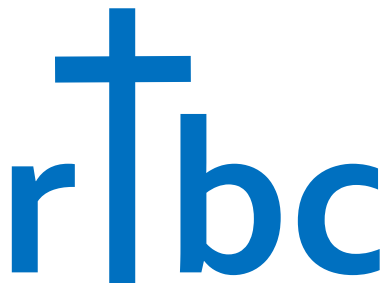

It seems that Hosea could have been puzzled (among other emotions) with the call of God to marry such a woman as Gomer, yet he obeyed. How might this call shape our understanding of God's heart?

In what ways does Hosea anticipate the inclusion of the Gentiles (as Paul argues in Romans 9)?

God's tender pursuit of His unfaithful people can challenge assumptions about Him. Judgement and mercy co-existing. Consider what this reveals about His character.

Recount circumstances illustrating how it is that God "speaks tenderly" to His people today.

Please use these considerations for personal reflection, small group discussions, and with friends and family.

Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
Bring her into the wilderness
And speak kindly to her. — Hosea 2:14, NASB
